Provo High School

Performing Arts

Ballroom: David Ellison (Varsity) - davide@provo.edu and Angela Williams (JV) - angelaw@provo.edu

Come and join the state-champion Provo High Ballroom Dance Company! As a company and individual competitors, we have dozens of state titles and National finalist rankings. We have traveled and performed all over the US, from Florida to Washington to California and all over Utah, performing at Disney, Universal, cruise lines, Catalina Island, the Senior Olympic games, and several other venues. Take one of our technique classes, or audition for the performing company by picking up a tryout packet from the Main Office. Tryouts are typically held in mid to late April. Hope to see you there!

Choir: Kenny Wiser - kennethw@provo.edu

Provo High School has an award winning choir program and we want you to be a part of it. All students who want to sing may sign up for Concert Choir. No audition required! If you are looking for more of a challenge, look for audition information in March to try out for Chamber Singers, Bella Voce, and Euphonix. Come and sing with us as you learn the necessary skills to be successful singers and performers. Contact Mr. Wiser for more information.

Dance Company: Jocelyn Smith - jocelyns@provo.edu

Provo Dance Company and the pre-performing companies Provo Dance Collective (2 sections) are the highest level of dance at Provo High School. Provo Dance Company performs at all football and basketball home games, assemblies, competes at the Shakespeare Competition and has concerts in winter and spring. Provo Dance Collective Companies perform at one football game, a few basketball games, and participate in the concerts in the fall and spring semesters. All performing companies have the opportunity to participate in the spring modern dance tour. Dancers will audition in the spring for placement in the following school year. These are audition based classes. Contact Jocelyn Smith for more information.

Drama: Bob Bauer - robertba@provo.edu

PHS's award-winning drama program is a place to explore the wide range of theatre throughout the world and history. Drama 1 is the introductory acting course for all incoming freshmen and is open enrolment. No audition necessary! Auditions for plays are in September and December. Come join the fun and let's play! Contact Mr. Bauer for more information.

Marching Band: Deven Halcomb - devenh@provo.edu

Provo High Bands feature two Concert Bands, an open-enrollment Percussion Class, and two Jazz Bands. New to Provo High this year is the Big Green Band, a year-round Marching Band program that competes in the Fall Marching Band circuit, the WGI Indoor Circuit, and provides entertainment for Home athletic events. Auditions take place in May. Contact Mr. Halcomb for more information.

Orchestra: Jennifer Lacayo - jenniferl@provo.edu

We have three outstanding string orchestras here at PHS – the Concert Orchestra, Sinfonia Orchestra and the Chamber Orchestra. All three of these orchestras are at different levels, with Chamber being our most advanced. Both Sinfonia and Chamber require auditions to enter the class. Contact Mrs. Lacayo for more information.

Provo High School Programs

Concurrent Enrollment (CE): Candy Castillo - laurac@provo.edu

Concurrent Enrollment is a collaborative program between Utah Valley University and the Provo City School District where students take selected high school courses earning both high school and college credit. The grade(s) earned create permanent high school and college transcripts. Junior or senior students need a cumulative GPA of 3.0 to participate in academic courses and a 2.0 in Career and Technical courses. Sophomore and Freshmen students by exception (check with your high school counselor). For a list of courses and other information, check <https://www.uvu.edu/concurrent/course-listing/> and select "Provo".

Distance Learning (DL): Candy Castillo - laurac@provo.edu

High school Junior and Senior students can also participate in Concurrent Enrollment Distance Education. These courses are taught by a UVU Professor and broadcast in real-time to our high school classroom A226. For courses available, check <https://www.uvu.edu/extend/courses-hs/> and select "Provo".

Associate's Degree (AA): Candy Castillo - laurac@provo.edu and Dawn Gross - dawng@uvu.edu

Students can earn an Associate's Degree in University Studies from the University College at Utah Valley University while still attending high school. This can be achieved by taking Advanced Placement, Concurrent Enrollment, and Distance Learning classes at PHS. See Mrs. Castillo, A226, for more information.

Advanced Placement (AP): - Todd Smith - todd@provo.edu and/or Mark baker - markb@provo.edu

Advanced Placement (AP) classes are college level classes whose curriculum follows a national standard. Students earn a high school grade. College "test" credit may be awarded based on student performance on a standardized exam. Students pay a fee to take the exam in the spring.

To be selected a Sterling Scholar nominee students must have extraordinary scholarship scores as well as service in leadership and community service/ citizenship opportunities at their Utah public high school. Each Sterling Scholar nominee's entire school experience will be considered, although emphasis will be placed on the high school years. Applications are available in September and students are ranked by the department chair and top candidates are interviewed by a panel.

Provo High School Programs

MTECH Certifications: See your individual counselor

MTECH offers a variety of programs available to high school juniors and seniors at a reduced cost. This is a great way to get a head start on your career. Many programs offer skill certificates that make you ready to begin your career, while others give you the opportunity for a better paying job as you pursue additional education. Check out their course offerings at <http://mtec.edu/>. See your counselor for additional information and to register so that you get PHS credit.

Internships: Jan Jardine - janj@provo.edu

Internships are available to Juniors and Seniors (.5 elective credit). Plan ahead so that you can take advantage of the internship program. The internship program is a valuable tool which allows you to see what it is like to work in the career that you are interested in pursuing. Internships are offered both on and off campus. Along with interning, students receive instructions that prepare them for the workforce such as writing a resume, interviewing, employment skills, work ethics, job applications, networking using LinkedIn and more. Requirements: be on track for graduation, have taken classes in your field of interest at PHS, have a 3.0 or higher GPA, have good attendance. Email Mrs. Jardine for additional information.

Work Based Learning: See your individual counselor

Work Release is available to Juniors and Seniors (.5 elective credit). Students who are currently employed may work with their counselor to submit paperwork (petition for credit and pay stubs) to earn credit for the time spent at their job. Each 45 hours of time submitted on an official paycheck stub will result in 0.25 credit. For additional information see your counselor.

Student Government: Lorien Francis - lorienf@provo.edu

Elected members of the Student Government do more than just represent the student body to faculty and administration. Student Government is responsible for shaping much of the student experience at Provo High School. This highly active and visible organization serves the entire student body by sponsoring and organizing activities that range from service projects to formal dances. They work closely with other student clubs in support of a number of school spirit activities and resources. Voted in or application. Dues: $80 for retreat. Elections / Appointments done in the spring.

Provo High School Athletics

Baseball: Lance Moore - lancem@provo.edu

Baseball Tryouts are held at the end of February. We hold youth camps during the summer—typically right after the 4th of July. The main office and the school website will have registration information. Our high school season is during the spring, we play a summer schedule in June, and we provide opportunities for off-season weight lifting and baseball specific workouts during the fall and winter.

Young men who are interested in playing baseball should understand that we expect baseball players to be gentlemen, scholars, and athletes—in that order. The coaching staff will stress discipline, and we will expect hard work. We have qualified for the post-season 16 of the last 17 years, and in that span, we have been state runners-up once, and third in state twice. Come be a part of Bulldog Baseball!
